

KAISER PERMANENTE / DODGERS PARTNERSHIP DAY

Jeremy, (center) was one of several area youngsters invited onto the field at Dodger

Stadium Saturday during Kaiser Permanente / Dodgers Partnership Day, part of an on-going three-year cooperative program. Jeremy, 16, a resident of La Verne and a student at LeRoy Haynes Center in La Verne, is accompanied by Kaiser physician Dr. James Baker, of the Kaiser Permanente Baldwin Park Medical Center Emergency Department, at left, and Dan Maydeck, President and CEO of LeRoy Haynes Center, at right. In addition to residential and mental health programs, the LeRoy Haynes Center includes the Haynes Education Center, a non-public school founded in 1989 to serve not only the children who live on campus but boys and girls from 14 school districts throughout Southern California.
