

Volunteers rally at LeRoy Haynes for service week

Nearly a dozen volunteers participated in National Volunteer Week, April 10 to 16, at HandsOn Inland Empire to help with an outdoor "beautification project" at LeRoy Haynes Center in La Verne on April 14.

The center project is one of several the organization hosted in the Inland Empire.

National Volunteer Week is about inspiring, recognizing and encouraging people to seek out imaginative ways to engage in their communities.

HandsOn Inland Empire, an Inland Empire United Way agency, inspires, equips and mobilizes people to take action in their community by engaging them in meaningful volunteer service projects throughout the Inland Empire.

The LeRoy Haynes Center provides specialized treatment and educational services to children with special needs relating to emotional development, autism, Asperger's Disorder, learning disabilities, neglect and abandonment.

SEND US YOUR PHOTOS!

The Highlander invites you to share your photographs of people and events in the community. Send photos to stacey.wang@sgvn.com. Be sure to include a brief description of the photo (names, date, place, event).